SpecTAPular! Special Guest teacher!

SEBASTIAN GOLDBERG

Sebastian Goldberg is from Lexington, MA where he grew up dancing and learning the business of arts education at The Dance Inn. Teaching dance is the family business, and he started leading classes at a young age, gaining over 15 years of experience teaching a wide variety of dance styles to students of all ages. He is committed to staying up to date with current teaching methods and has attended events such as Rhee Gold's DanceLife Teacher Conference, and the National Dance Educators Organization conference. He also works closely with his mother, Dr. Thelma Goldberg, author and creator of Thelma's Tap Notes.

His performance career spans nationwide theatre, cruise ships, and touring productions. Since 2021, Sebastian has held a position on the artistic staff at the Palace Theatres in Manchester, NH, where he works as the Assistant to the Artistic Director, Company Manager, and Director of Dance for the Palace Youth Theatre program.
